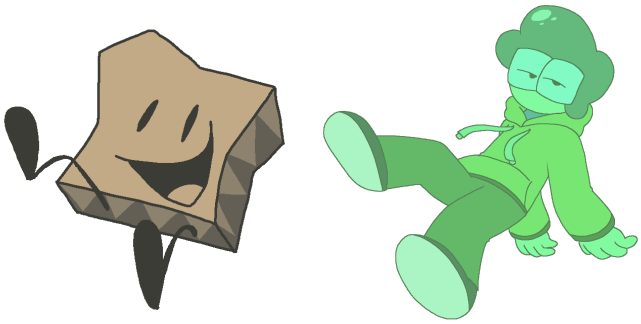
Summary

On June of 2023, the user Gery was exposed for acts of grooming, pedophilia, and sexual harrassment towards minors and his close friends. After a short notice, he updated his channel description claiming he would try to improve himself by not only taking therapy but stepping off social media as a whole to make sure he didn't repeat these actions. As you all may know however, this has not been entirely true, as Gery has come back under a new name on a private discord account. Recently, some new things have come out about him, and this doc is meant to bring these things to light, to protect not just his current friends, but anyone else in the community he resides who may also have involvement with him.

CW//: Grooming, Pedophilia, Porn, Infidelity and Manipulation

For further mention in this doc, Gery goes under a new OC.



Grooming

A big thing that Gery claimed when he had recorded and posted his response video, was that the very specific actions dealt would be put to a stop. However, on February 7th of 2025, Gery, who is at this point in time 20 years old, began and established a 'platonic relationship' with a 17 year old. (Who wishes to remain anonymous). In many of these screenshots, Gery would refer to himself as Sonic the Hedgehog and to the 17 y/o as Surge the Tenrec. The theme for Gery and Sonic characters occurs more prominently throughout the screenshots.

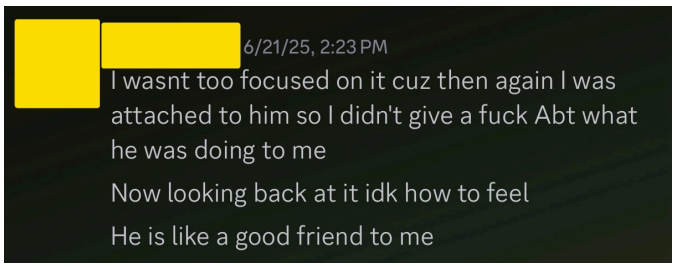
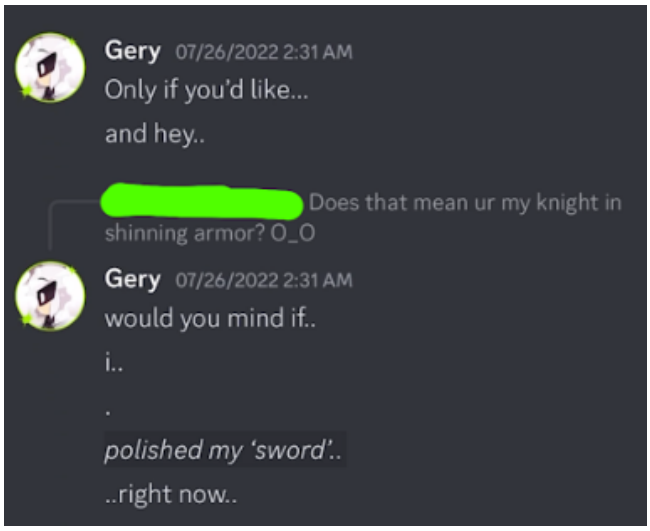
He said that stuff before I turned 18 so yeah, it was kinda weird before, but now since I turn 18 and stuff he has been barely making jokes like that. I'll find the screenshots soon, just please don't spread it around.



[redacted] 6/21/25, 2:23 PM
I wasnt too focused on it cuz then again I was attached to him so I didn't give a fuck Abt what he was doing to me
Now looking back at it idk how to feel
He is like a good friend to me

It started as just a platonic relationship, but no more than a week later, Gery had begun to send messages with sexual innuendos and scenarios in them. From sending cropped Sonic porn and comparing it to the two, repeatedly asking the 17 y/o to “bounce on it,” and roleplaying with the minor using ‘baking jokes’ as an implication for having sex and cumming inside them, there are many different instances of Gery speaking sexually to them. While some of these may seem ridiculous in nature, they are not out of the question for Gery to do before (ie: referring to his penis as a sword).



Gery building a platonic relationship with the 17 Y/O only to use them for sexual intent is by legal definition considered grooming.

Another thing worth mentioning is that the victim is shown to be uncomfortable, disgusted, and asked to stop in a multitude of the screenshots, and Gery does not; such instances as stating “you got creamed by me,” touching them while they’re playing a game, implying he’d sleep with them while his penis is stuck inside of them, pulling their hair, and implying he’d want them to put him in a collar through one of the Sonic comparisons. The screenshots are ordered chronologically, so through the first couple of screenshots, you can see the discomfort of the victim yourself, then the events being continued through the rest of the screenshots. It should be noted that even if someone underage may express being okay with something like this, it is morally wrong to engage sexually with them regardless of who it may be asked to.

Gery's behavior doesn’t stop here, as he ends up continuing to show his behavior here simultaneously with another person for a way longer period of time.

Infidelity

(We don't condone the behavior of what Hydro did, but what Gery’s doing in these screenshots is still wrong. Two wrongs don’t make a right.)

As some of you may know, Gery is currently in a relationship with Keiko. However, on September 3rd, 2024, Gery started developing a small obsession with the OC Ivy_Leaves. While it had begun as a joke, and could be considered one, it had been later disclosed it was done purely out of loneliness for when Keiko was not around.

Half of me is only doing this Ivy leaves thing is because keikos been so busy and idk
I just feel alone for a good amount of the day
And even when she's not busy she's just
On Roblox
And when she'd call She'd just Fall asleep not even long after
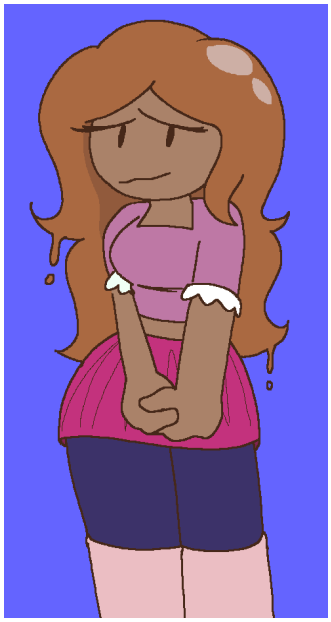
Idk
I've expressed it and she's fully aware so it sucks

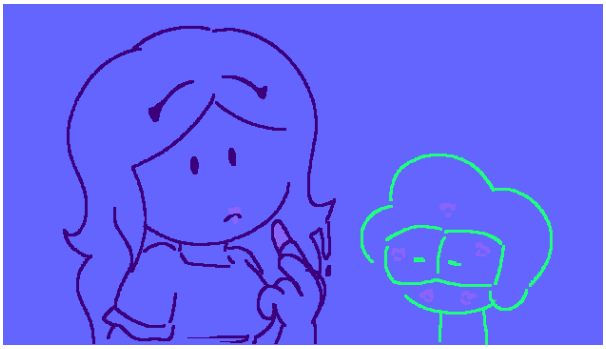
While these could be just brushed off as drawings, it doesn't end at that as it slowly escalated into an obsession with Hydro herself. As Gery would deviate off of solely Ivy, to a persona that he designed revolving Hydro as a whole.



Yo shawty, can you tell me where I'm at?

So, you knew a "hydro"? and they were like me?
how were they like?

Lowkey ur cute and that pisses me off



explaining all the bs from the previous community and all the annoying people (ender)
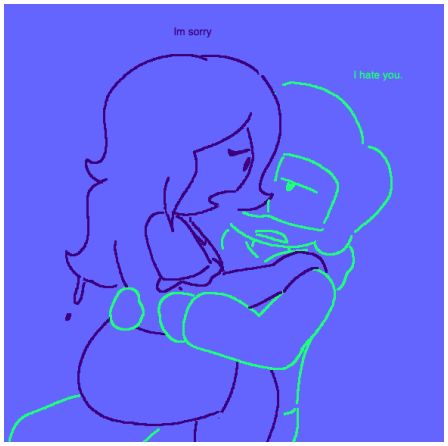
listening



Im sorry
I hate you.

so like, did you ever have a guy named "Amine" in your life when I'm with you, I feel like I can do any don't worry about it.

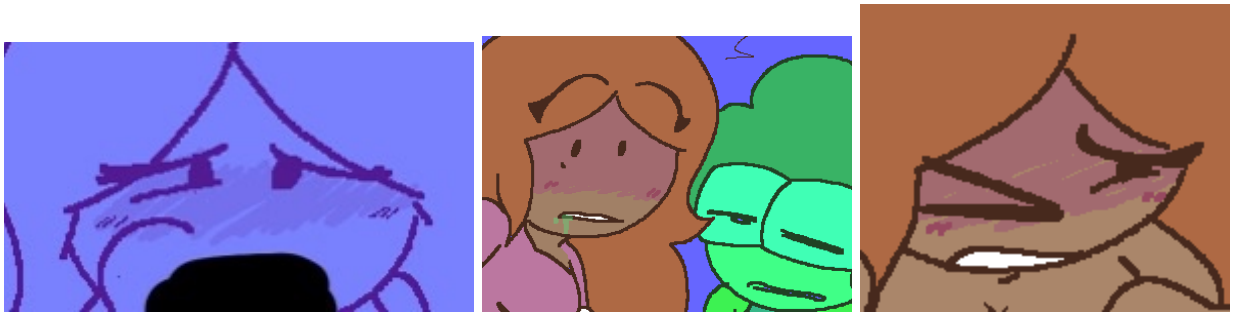
NSFW Imagery Ahead//

These drawings don’t just stay SFW (safe for work), as they also devolve towards more suggestive and NSFW (not safe for work) content featuring the two. These were either drawn by Gery himself or commissioned (without the permission or knowledge of Hydro until after they had been completed.)



Once again, these actions not only express through images and drawings, as he would also repeatedly flirt and initiate in sexual comments and roleplay to Hydro, also implying to cheat on Keiko with Hydro due to small petty things, such as Keiko spending ‘too much time’ on Roblox.

NSFW/Explicit Content Ahead//

Gery has been cheating on his girlfriend along with talking shit about her repeatedly for months, proceeding to lie as well to her when confronted about these things, this is both emotional abuse and manipulation.

While Hydro was 18 in all of these screenshots, this shows that Gery is not behind or against repeating his actions that he claimed he was making sure he wouldn't do again.

Callout

Something that made people give Gery another chance, was the fact he was taking therapy. What most people hadn't known was that Gery had stopped taking the therapy after his first few sessions, as he was not "financially able" to continue; proceeding to only take simple monthly wellness quizzes instead. This would be a completely fair thing, if it hadn't been for the information prior, and the information that is about to be brought up.

Gery has been commissioning porn artists to draw various things for him. One of the most notorious ones is the sheet of 7 different poses of him and Ivy_Leaves having sex, and the other being of him and the GFY design of Hydro as shown above. Another one that has been brought to attention is of Gery having sex with all 4 of the girls from Doki Doki Literature Club, in which he had sent to the minor also outlined in the previous section.

He commissioned an artist
It was the four girls

Yeah, it was colored and stuff
He censored his d
It's kinda weird making porn of teenagers, but that's a Convo I don't think anyone is ready for Idgaf if they're legal, they're like 18 💔

Considering he still gets the revenue from his YouTube channel, gets paid from Re:DBB, along with payment from various BTDYBB solo arts, and the recent Penguin Tournament renders and thumbnails, he most definitely has the money to afford therapy, but chooses to spend it on porn instead.

As of recent (being July 2025), he has gone against the word of being off social media and not interacting with the community by entering and speaking in a public community server under an alt account as Mario. This is further proven by him going on various member's videos and pretending to be the character.

Conclusion

Gery is not someone you should be around for your own safety. He was given a second chance and wasted it. Right now, we only know of two people that he talked to this way in recent days, but who knows if there's more people out there that haven’t spoken up yet. If you are one of those people, feel free to speak up; your voice is heard and right now is the best time.

Please try to avoid Gery everywhere you can. These are the only known social medias he is active on.
